25 FEET OF TROUBLE 18 HOURS OF AGONY

DO YOU KNOW
THAT every meal you eat has to travel a distance of over 25 feet through your body? THAT normally it takes between 18 and 24 hours over the journey?

THAT you extract nearly all the goodness from your food not in your Stomach but in the Small Intestine?

THAT this organ is a coiled tube an inch across and actually 20 feet long?

THAT during this digestive journey many complicated and delicate processes take place?

THAT any one of these may go wrong?

THAT that result will be INDIGESTION—which, if neglected, may lead to serious consequences?

YOU NEED

London Air-Mail Letter

Sir John Simon's Trip to Rome: Miss Madeleine Carroll: One on Bankers! Bismarck and the Emperor: Ordination at St. Paul's: The Last Century.

Special Air-Mail Service

FROM PARIS TO CAPRI

London, December 27.
Sir John Simon's "officially unofficial" tour will have started on its second stage by to-morrow evening, when he will have left Paris for the island of Capri, where once the Emperor Tiberius sought seclusion from the cares of State.

Capri, by decree of Signor Mussolini, has been made sanctuary for birds.

It would have been somewhat ironical had this spot, which men have made safe for birds, been the scene of a discussion to make the world safe for men.

But that is not to be. I learn that Sir John's conversation with Mussolini will take place in Rome on his way back to London.

The present Foreign Secretary has thus quite broken away from the Chamberlain tradition, which favoured a yacht in the Mediterranean as the most suitable locale for such exchanges of views.

MADELEINE CARROLL'S AMBITION.

Miss Madeleine Carroll confessed to me recently that her greatest ambition was to become a good public speaker. Those who heard her speak at the King George Hospital dinner at the Mansion House would agree, that there is no need for her to think in terms of the future.

Her speech of eight minutes show that acting is not the only medium in which she can excel.

Miss Carroll is leaving for Hollywood at the end of January. This is her first visit to the film Mecca.

Her husband, Capt. Philip Astley, told me that he had had a meal in the Mansion House on only one previous occasion. This was when he commanded the escort to the Garter King-at-Arms who read the Proclamation of Peace at the end of the war.

Capt. Astley seems to have made a "corner" in celebrations associated with the Peace. In the victory march of the Allied Armies through Paris he headed the British Army, being preceded only by Lord Haig with his Staff, and a band.

FOR BANKERS ONLY.

As a result of the many bank failures and the disclosures at the recent public inquiries, bankers are not over-popular in the United States at the present moment.

Stories at their expense have been legion. Here is the latest to reach me:

"Two burglars who broke into an American banker's house managed to get away without losing anything."

BISMARCK'S WAY.

Stories of the old rivals, Bismarck and Disraeli, have been revived in Paris by the production of a new musical comedy in which Bismarck is a leading character.

Bismarck is reputed to have been asked by Disraeli, when he was received him: "How do you manage to get rid of unwelcome visitors?"

"Nothing is more simple," Bismarck replied. "When my wife thinks people have wasted enough of my time, she tells my valet to come and inform me that the Emperor wishes to see me immediately. That always works admirably."

At that moment there was a knock at the door, and Bismarck's valet entered the room. "His Majesty wishes to speak to your Highness," he announced.

REFERRED 2,000 FIGHTS.

Eugene Corri used to claim that he had refereed more boxing championships than any other man. Certainly in thirty years refereeing an estimate of over 2,000 combats which he had controlled was probably conservative.

He was not always a professional referee. Up to 1912 he was a stockbroker's clerk. Then he set up on his own as a stockbroker. For a short time he had some success, but later he became involved in various financial difficulties, from which he was never really free for the rest of his life.

He was Irish, in spite of his Italian name. His father, Patrick Corri, was a member of the Carl Rosa Opera Company, and changed his name for professional reasons.

CHANCELLOR OF CAMBRIDGE.

A portrait of Mr. Baldwin, in his robes as Chancellor of Cambridge University, painted by Mr. W. T. Monnington, A.R.A., was presented to the Master and Fellows of Trinity College by Lord Crewe at a Committee Room in the House of Lords yesterday. It had been subscribed for by old Trinity men and will hang in the Great Hall of the College.

"THE SIGN OF THE TUDOR ROSE."

With the King and Queen and every member of the royal family now enrolled in its membership, the Tudor Rose League, I was informed by one of its directors to-day, is establishing a wide range of influence in persuading the public to give preference to British goods in all their purchases. Its membership has now reached over 300,000, all of whom wear the badge of the Tudor rose signifying co-operation. The same sign is being displayed by many of the West-End stores and other shops, by which they proclaimed that they wish to offer Empire goods as a first choice to their customers. Glasgow and Edinburgh are credited by the League here as showing an exceptionally good example in this form of practical patriotism compared with other large cities.

99 YEARS AGO.

Ninety-nine years ago to-day the first hansom cab appeared on the streets of London. It became the fashionable vehicle of Victorian days.

Joseph Aloysius Hansom, its inventor, called it the "Patent Safety Cab." He got £10,000 for his design.

In the original cab the driver sat at the side instead of on the roof, as in the later model.

Hansom, the son of a York joiner, became an architect. He built Roman Catholic Churches, convents and Plymouth Cathedral.

His design for Birmingham Town Hall was accepted when he was 28. He lived to the age of 99.

ADMIRAL AS CURATE.

Rear-Admiral A. R. Wadham Woods, D.S.O., who was ordained deacon by the Bishop of London in St. Paul's Cathedral on Sunday, and has been appointed to the curacy of St. Paul with St. Mark, Whitechapel, retired in April, 1931, on his promotion to flag rank. He is 53, and before the War was Flag Lieutenant and Lieutenant-Commander to the late Admiral Sir Francis Bridgeman. In 1914-16 he was signal officer on the staff of Admiral Jellicoe in H.M.S. Iron Duke, and controlled the visual signalling work at the battle of Jutland, for which he was made D.S.O. A bar to this decoration was awarded him in 1917, when in command of the light cruiser Topaze. His last appointment in the Navy was as Captain of the Dockyard and King's Harbour Master at Portsmouth, in 1928-29.

CANDLE-LIT SQUARE.

There is one part of London, at least, where old-world customs are preserved at this time of the year.

It is Campden Hill-square, with its charming Georgian houses.

On Christmas Eve the residents put lighted candles in their windows (a dozen or twenty in each house) as a symbolic welcome to the Christ Child.

With all the twinkling lights, the square takes on a new beauty.

SIR MILES LAMPSON AT PORT SAID

Greeted by Representative of King Fuad

Port Said, January 7.

Sir Miles Lampson, formerly H.M. Minister to China and new High Commissioner for Egypt and the Sudan, arrived aboard the ss. Ranchi, to-day.

He was greeted aboard ship by a representative of King Fuad and British authorities.

Sir Miles, accompanied by his niece and two daughters, went ashore where he was received by the Governor of the Canal Zone, Egyptian officials and British and foreign notables.

He dined this evening at the British Consulate and will leave for Cairo in a special train to-morrow.—Herald.

"SUPERNATURAL"

Coming To The Central

How unscrupulous spirit mediums "employ sleight-of-hand tricks to dupe the gullible out of large fortunes yearly is demonstrated in "Supernatural" a tale of the spirit world, which comes to the Central Theatre, soon with Carole Lombard, Randolph Scott, H. B. Warner and Vivienne Osborne in the leading roles.

"Supernatural" is a sympathetic story of spiritualism, but one of the major characters in the story is a "phony" spiritualist, who toys with forces and does not comprehend. The film reveals how he uses various tricks to produce apparent spirit effects.

A brass trumpet, thrown casually on the table, starts to utter words apparently from spirits; a table floats; spirit messages are written mysteriously on a slate; spirit rappings are heard; and numerous other phenomena take place. The film shows how he does them all.

The story centers around Miss Lombard, a wealthy young heiress, who, upon the death of a beloved twin brother, becomes easy prey for a fake-spiritualist—a role played by Allan Dinehart. In the meantime, Miss Osborne, betrayed to the police by Dinehart, is executed in the electric chair for murder. H. B. Warner, as psychologist, is attempting an experiment upon the murderers to prevent her spirit from wreaking the revenge which he is sure it is plotting. But the experiment goes amiss, and the spirit of the murderer enters into the body of Miss Lombard, and plans to use the girl to wreak vengeance on Dinehart.

FACING THE MUSIC

British Film Coming To Central

The most elaborate and spectacular scenes ever devised for the background of a comedy film are those where were produced for B.L.P.'s.

"Facing The Music." Though it was but the mis-en-scene for the hilarious adventures of the irresistible Stanley Lupino in a complete opera house was but in addition to an auditorium (stalls, boxes and orchestra pit) a full-sized proscenium and stage.

As much of the action takes place behind the curtain, the stage mechanics, wings "flies" and lighting have been reproduced in detail and were, like the huge curtain, in working order. On the stage, in specially designed settings, many of the principal scenes from the opera "Faust" and the finale of "Tristan and Isolde" were produced for the film. Music lovers will be able to thrill to "The Jewel Song," the Soldiers' Chorus, Mephistopheles' Serenade; the Sextette "Light is Air"; the ballet music; the immortal trio in the Prison scene from "Faust" and the glory of the finale of Wagner's opera. The full B.L.P. Symphony orchestra of sixty picked instrumentalists accompanies Jose Collins in her film role of prima donna playing Marguerite and Isolde with Dennis Hoey as Mephistopheles and Darroll Richards as Faust.

To do full justice to these remarkable scenes, Harry Hughes, the director, employed a camera crane. This apparatus which was specially built to B.L.P.'s own design, enables the cameraman to travel, at any height, in any direction round or above the setting with speed, ease and accuracy. From the platform at the end of the crane's rigid arm some remarkable scenes were secured for "Facing The Music" by travelling uninterrupted shots above the heads of the audience, over the orchestra, and on to the stage, and thence either swinging round to film Lupino in a box, or the girl of his heart on the opposite side of the theatre.

Heather Angel, who plays opposite Leslie Howard in Jesse L. Lasky's "Berkeley Square" to-day at the King's Theatre, has a perfect "A" face, says Phillips.

"Her skin is smooth and evenly colored and is completely devoid of check hollows and wrinkles. I consider her the has no bad spots that must be ironed out."

But the strange part of it is that Ahmang, himself, doesn't realize it. In fact, he doesn't even know he is an actor.

It all happened this way. Ward Wing, who directed "Samarang," spent days and days searching the various tribes in the Malay Peninsula for a hero for the story which he was going to make. He was very meticulous about the type he selected. The reason for that was the fact that his wife, Lori Bara, had written the story and had a definite mind picture of her hero.

Imagine their disappointment to find that the Malays in general were not more than five feet six inches in height. That would be a mere pigmy on the screen and nothing to inspire awe in the feminine mind.

Four weeks they spent making trips by automobile, canoe, on foot through trackless jungles and braving the dangers of meeting countless savage beasts. Tribe after tribe was visited. Neighboring islands were scanned for a hero, but it seemed to be in vain.

Wing's entire crew marked time while he explored every nook and cranny of the vicinity in search of a suitable hero.

One day while on his way to the home of a tribe, he encountered a group of natives. Like most of the inhabitants of the region they were friendly and invited him and his party to dine with them. As they approached the village one man stood up head and shoulders above the rest of them.

Wing's heart skipped a beat as he spied him and calling to the rest of his party, "There's our hero," he darted through the crowd.

It took a good deal of verbal persuasion to persuade Ahmang to act before the camera. He was a Dyak head hunter and felt that his place was with his tribe and not doing antics in front of a little box.

Wing made the almost fatal mistake of offering him money for his acting. But he soon learned that Dyak disdain of such paltry things as money precluded Ahmang's accepting anything.

With all the advantages of tradition, of vessels and of efficiency in our favour, cannot we offer the little extra service and willingness to oblige, which would preserve for us our passenger traffic?—Hal Winter in the Nautical Magazine.

"I'M NO ANGEL"

Mae West At The Queen's

Solely on the strength of personality, Mae West is about one of the strongest screen attractions to-day. Her latest picture, "I'm No Angel" now playing at the Queen's theatre is an absolute record breaker. In this film she is cast as the "cooch" dancer of a side show, then the star of a big circus, and later as the retired lady of leisure whose only occupation is to snare willing men. It is decidedly Miss West's picture. Gary Grant is the hero of the story, he is involved in a breach of promise action in which Mae West sues for heart balm. The courtroom scene is the high light of the picture. This is great entertainment and we strongly recommend it for a couple hours of diversion.

GOLDEN HARVEST

Coming Soon to the Queen's

The gentle pastoral quality of the farm—the mad hysterical activity of the wheat pit.

These two contrasting scenes serve as the dramatic background for Paramount's epic romance, "Golden Harvest," produced by Charles R. Rogers, which is showing from Thursday at the Queen's.

Richard Arlen and Chester Morris give strong capable performances as brothers, raised on the farm, who separate to go their own ways. Arlen as a radical leader and Morris as a wheat speculator.

Julie Haydon is the farm girl and Genevieve Tobin the city girl. The story is woven by Nina Wilcox Putnam and Casey Robinson far away from any pattern of other farm romances.

Here we see the modern farmer, radical and aggressive, breaking the law to save his farm, loving his family and his soil. We see spectacular riots and the reverend excitement of the wheat pit.

The farm scenes and the pit scenes are authentic. The former were filmed during a three weeks' location trip to the wheat country near Pendleton, Oregon, and the wheat pit scenes were shot on the floor of the Chicago Board of Trade.

As the story starts Morris is returning from a European trip. He has ruined him for the farm. He is about to break off his engagement to Julie Haydon when she tells him she loves Arlen. Morris becomes the speculator. Arlen marries Julie and stays on the farm.

Hard times come. The large farm dwindles in size while Morris is rolling in wealth and luxury. His father and brother refuse his aid. Arlen, the radical farmer, starts a strike and Morris finally joins with him to "bull" wheat.

The climax is truthful and honest. And "Golden Harvest" is a picture of epic proportions that everyone should see.

Rome, January 12.
The expenses of marshal Bal-boa's historic squadron flight to Chicago and back totalled seven and a half million Lira, or about $120,000 at the present rate of exchange, according to a statement made by Under-Secretary of State for Air General Valle, before the Senate to-day. This included petrol furnished by an international-ally known firm for publicity purposes. Valle gave exact figures in order to refute exaggerated
rumours which had put the total
at upwards of 100 million Lira.—

Rome, January 12.
Mussolini attended a dinner given to-day by the Brazilian Ambasador Doria Pamphili, who presented the Italian Premier with the "crusoe de Sul" the highest order Brazil could confer in commemoration of Italy's adherence to the Rio de Janeiro Treaty.
The Brazilian Minister in his speech alluded to Italy's period of peaceful progress.

In his reply Mussolini thanked him for the high honour bestowed on him and added that Italy's policy aimed at creating peaceful international co-operation. He reminded the guests that discord
among leading nations would en-

LECTURE AT UNIVERSITY BY MR. FREEMAN

The Fascination of Engineering

HOW ALFRED HOLT FOUND FAME

The members of the University Engineering Society were fortunate in having the opportunity of listening to Mr. S. B. Freeman C.B.E., M. I. Mech. E. on Friday last. Mr. S. B. Freeman (Chairman) Presided and, in addition to the student body amongst those who attended were Sir William Hornell and Professor Faid (President of the Society).

At the request of the Chairman, Professor Middleton Smith introduced the lecturer. He first congratulated the Society upon the fact that at this, the "coming of age" meeting of the Society founded just twenty-one years ago, there should be a record number of members present.

GENEROSITY OF ALFRED HOLT

He then mentioned that it was fitting that at this anniversary they should have the privilege of listening to a famous engineer who was also a representative of the firm of Messrs. Alfred Holt. That firm had been most generous benefactors to the University, and especially to the Engineering Faculty. Recently they had offered certain free return passages to engineering graduate apprentices from the University who were thus enabled to obtain practical experience in Britain. Mr. Freeman was a member of the Court of the University of Liverpool, the chief advisory engineer to Messrs. Alfred Holt, a member of many technical institutions and was well known to engineers in many parts of the world. His address would be of the greatest interest to young engineers.

Selecting a Profession.

Mr. Freeman commenced by congratulating those present upon the selection of their profession. They would find their work of absorbing interest. During the past hundred years the world had been entirely changed by engineering science. Although for centuries there had been civil engineers it was only during the last hundred years that the mechanical engineer had been at work. They could see the results, especially in the matter of power production and transport. (Appropriately enough, just as Mr. Freeman mentioned "transport" the roar of an aeroplane was heard by the audience.) The lecturer at once drew the attention of those present to that latest form of transport, so useful in China.

He then told some interesting facts about the enterprise of Alfred Holt, engineer and founder of the famous Blue Funnel Line. He felt sure that if any engineer persevered and took advantage of his opportunities he could not only make a living but, what was more, be of great benefit to humanity.

Holt's Daring.

Alfred Holt was trained as a civil engineer. After his training, greatly daring, he put up a brass plate outside an office in Liverpool and used the title, "Consulting Engineer". Almost his first job was concerned with a small ship of about the size of a Macao steamer. It was built and Alfred Holt set about making improvements. He wanted to obtain more power and so he increased the steam pressure.

That helped, but he was not satisfied. The space in the engine room, fore and aft, was filled; but he decided to add another cylinder to the steam engine so as to obtain more power. He very boldly decided to place a second cylinder on the top of the existing cylinder and so invented what is now known as the tandem steam-engine which has been often built since.

When Ships Used Sails.

Alfred Holt went on developing new engineering ideas. In those days there was no Suez Canal and all of the ships voyaging between England and China used sails. Alfred Holt and his friends including one John Scott of Greenock who afterwards lived for some years in Hongkong as head of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire in this Colony decided to build a steamer for the China trade. Everyone said that the project could not carry enough coal. Alfred Holt went ahead and the old "Agamemnon" successfully rounded the Cape of Good Hope and came to China. That successful voyage meant the end of the famous China Clippers. Soon afterwards the Suez Canal was opened and many more ships steamed there to China.

Since those days very great developments in marine engineering had taken place. Sir Charles Parsons overcame the many obstacles connected with the development of the steam turbine and later the oil engine had been used with success for propelling ships.

Radio and Fish.

Not only had there been great improvements and inventions connected with the propelling machinery but there had been radio and all sorts of other inventions. In connection with the radio, ships were not only fitted to communicate with each other, and with land, but by the latest apparatus they could determine the exact longitude and latitude of a ship steaming in a fog. They could also record the depth of water under the ship and plot out a graph automatically showing the rise and fall of the back of the ocean as a ship passed over. More remarkable they could discover whether there was a shoal of fish under the ship. British trawlers were now fitted with apparatus which enable them not only to discover a shoal of fish but to communicate with other trawlers with different ports to discover where they could obtain the best price for the fish when taken ashore. Mr. Freeman concluded by assuring the engineering students that they have an immense job open to them in China. He spoke of road development, transport, factories, power stations, harbour and port developments, and many other engineering works that could be carried out in their life time; and he congratulated them upon the immense field that lay before them giving them such great opportunities for the useful employment of the knowledge which they would acquire in the University.

Professor Brown, in moving a vote of thanks to the lecturer, mentioned that it was one of the most inspiring addresses that he had ever heard, and that he wished that they could have more frequently the opportunity of listening to such men of experience and reputation. He had some years ago given to the members of the University Engineering Society a lecture on the Scott Still engine which had been fitted in some ships belonging to Messrs. Alfred Holt. He had also given a general survey of recent developments in engineering science, and he hoped that others would also address the students so that they might see from time to time the recent progress in engineering which had been made. He felt sure that the member had greatly appreciated the address and joined with him most heartily in giving a vote of thanks to Mr. Freeman for his most inspiring and interesting address. A vote of thanks was carried with acclamation.

NAVAL DOCKYARD CHILDREN

Recreation Club Gives Christmas Treat

A most enjoyable afternoon was spent on Friday by the children of the members of the Royal Naval Dockyard Recreation Club. Some 90 children were entertained, while about 100 parents were present.

See-saws, Aunt Sallys and a chute were the principal side shows, while "Uncle Rumbustikin" added greatly to the enjoyment of the afternoon with his clever conjuring tricks.

Father Christmas, too arrived by aeroplane and very appropriately entered by the chimney. Mrs. Elliott, the wife of Commodore Frank Elliott, O.B.E., R.N., distributed the gifts. After the distribution three hearty cheers were given for Mrs. Elliott, Santa Claus and others who were responsible for the success of the afternoon. At the conclusion of the entertainment Diana Hosking, the little daughter of the Honorary Secretary, presented Mrs. Elliott with a handsome basket of flowers.

AROUND THE COURTS

SESSIONS CALENDAR

Only Three Cases on The List.

Only three cases are listed in the calendar of the Criminal Sessions, which will open at the Supreme Court on January 22, before the Acting Chief Justice, the Hon. Mr. J. R. Wood, and the Puisne Judge, Mr. R. E. Lindsell. Kartar Singh, charged with manslaughter, will be tried by the Acting Chief Justice, while Kwok Ping, charged with a breach of the Deportation Ordinance and Loi Lai, charged with unlawful possession of arms and ammunition, will come before the Puisne Judge.

ART AND THE NUDE

"People don't buy them because they are artistic, but because they are pictures of naked women," said Mr. Hamilton on Saturday to a Chinese, who, when charged with exposing indecent pictures for sale replied that they were artistic studies. The defendant was fined $50.

ONCE TOO OFTEN

Presenting a letter to Kwok Ping Fu of 189 Connaught Road Central, a Chinese obtained $60, because the letter purported to come from Kwok's uncle asking for a loan. A few days later, the same man appeared again and obtained $50. Meanwhile Kwok dutifully wrote to his uncle (who was in Macao) offering his sympathies for the hard time he was going through. He received a reply which apprised him of the fact that he had been victimised. The fraud discovered, "the man with the letter" was arrested when he came a third time to the house. He was sentenced to six months' hard labour by Mr. Hamilton on Saturday.

SANITY DOUBTED

When a Chinese was brought before Mr. Hamilton on a charge of arson, the Police asked for a week's remand so that the defendant might be put under medical observation. "Don't let him burn the goal, will you? He has a madness for setting fire to things!" warned Mr. Hamilton in granting the remand.

OPIMUM DIVAN RAIDED

Principal Tenant Fined.

A Chinese named So Choi appeared before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court on Saturday charged with keeping an opium divan and unlawful possession of five maces of prepared opium.

It was stated by a Chinese detective, that the defendant was the principal tenant of No. 13, Ngai Chin Wal Road, 1st floor, Kowloon City and at the time of the raid, there were some opium smokers in the premises. Defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $110 or nine weeks' hard labour.

RADIATOR'S CAP THIEF

Arrested with a motor car's radiator cap in his possession, a Chinese admitted that he stole it from a car parked in Jervois Street. He was sentenced to eight weeks' imprisonment.

FRAUD PLAN FAILS

Arrested Man Gets Two Months

For attempting to obtain $200 by fraud from the Shing Kee Company of 95, Wing Lok Street East, a Chinese was sent to prison for two months by Mr. Balfour.

Inspector Murphy, prosecuting, stated that a man in New Zealand had been in the habit of sending money through the shipping office of the Shing Kee Company. A letter which arrived from him on January 3 was taken from the box and later replaced, the contents having been tampered with. On January 11 accused produced a chit requesting payment to bearer of $200 but was questioned when he called for the money, as the writing on the chit did not compare with that of previous letters received. As the applicant could produce no guarantee that the money was intended for him he was arrested.

Later, he admitted that someone had asked him to try this trick.

THEFT OF BLANKETS

Chinese Gets Three Months Gao

Before Mr. Hamilton at the Central Police Court on Saturday morning, a Chinese named Man Wan described as unemployed, was charged with theft of two blankets. It was stated by the Police that at about 12.30 a.m. on last Friday morning, the defendant entered a bamboo-matched in Aberdeen and stole two blankets, which belonged to a workman.

The defendant in pleading guilty, told the Court that he was feeling cold and had nothing to cover at night, so he stole the two blankets. Sentence of three months' hard labour was passed.

LOCAL CRICKET

Recreio Drop A Valuable Point

PEARCE AND RUMJAHN GET CENTURIES.

There was only one league cricket match on Saturday although quite a number of friendlies were played.

In the second division Club de Recreio received a nasty shock when they were held to a draw by the University on their own ground.

The University have G. A. Windsor to thank for their point for this young cricketer made 50 runs in fine style to enable the undergraduates to total 164 runs.

Two centuries were recorded in the friendlies. Alec Pearce hit two sixes and 12 boundaries in his 101 (retired) against C.S.C.C. on the Club ground, while "Gadooks" Rumjahn hit no fewer than 18 boundaries in his 102 (retired) for the I.R.C. against Kowloon.

PRESERVING THE PAGODAS

Work At Luk Yung Monastery

According to a Canton vernacular paper, the authorities of the Pagoda Reconstruction Bureau, with a view to preserving the ancient relics of the city have recently decided to repair the Pagoda of the Luk Yung Monastery, which is one of the finest monuments of Canton.

During the last few days, small repair work has been commenced but owing to the pinnacle of the Pagoda being so high, it is rather difficult and dangerous for the workmen to reach the top to work. Hence it has been suggested by the authorities that a high bamboo-scaffolding should be built up to the pinnacle, so as to ensure safety for the workmen.

According to the report issued by the Pagoda Reconstruction Bureau, it is said that the whole repairing work of the Pagoda will take twelve months to complete it, and the estimated cost for the repairs is about $50,000.

A CHILDREN'S CHARTER

The Children and Young Persons Act, which came into force in Great Britain on the 1st of November, is expected to have a profound and beneficial influence on young members of society who find it difficult to keep strictly within the limits of the law. Juvenile courts have existed in England since 1808, their function being to deal with offenders under the age of 16, but broadly speaking it was only in the metropolitan area of London that special panels of justices were appointed to deal with these cases. One of the most important features of the new Act, which has truly been called a Children's Charter, is to remedy this defect and at the same time to raise the age limit of young persons under the Act from sixteen to seventeen years.

Modern study of psychology has shown that a child at war with society should be aided and educated to a better understanding of its position in the community; it should not be punished. That there are born criminals is generally admitted, but the overwhelming majority of young offenders who find themselves in trouble owe their misfortune to bad environment. The guiding principle, in the treatment of every case, before the new juvenile courts is therefore that "every court, in dealing with a child or a young person, who is brought before it, either as being in need of care and protection, or as an offender or otherwise, shall have regard to the welfare of the child or young person." With this welfare in mind, the new Act gives greater facilities for the transfer of children to so-called "approved schools" or where such a course is unsuitable, provides a greater measure of supervision in the child's home or places it under the care of responsible foster parents.

The new Act provides for the formation in every petty sessional division (as mentioned above, specially constituted juvenile courts already exist in the London area) of a panel of justices, specially qualified to deal with juvenile offenders. Most offenders take the first steps on the path to crime at an early age, often out of a natural craving for adventure. That the majority are not criminals by nature is proved by the fact that, under the system of Home Office schools in existence before the passing of the new Act, records covering three years after the departure of pupils from the schools show that between 85 and 90 per cent of youths were doing well and caused no further trouble. The first thing the new juvenile courts have to decide is therefore whether it is a mere prank or a more serious offence, which brought the youth in question before them, and it is here the value of a knowledge of the boy's type, his mental processes, and the influence of his surroundings immediately becomes apparent.

In keeping with the abolishment of the idea of "crime" where children are concerned, the Act lays down that the words "conviction" and "sentence" may no longer be employed. No child under seventeen years of age can be sent to penal servitude for any offence whatsoever. The Borstal Institutions and Industrial Schools will be merged with other Home Office schools under the common denomination of "approved schools", and to these schools children may be transferred for care and education whether they have been merely neglected or have appeared in court for some offence. The greatest emphasis is put by the Act on the moulding of character, and here the approved schools show their greatest benefit to pupils. The only restraint on their freedom is the ordinary discipline of English schools. They are given every opportunity to develop self-reliance and a sense of responsibility, and open air sports and games are greatly encouraged. The class-room education is combined with handicrafts of various kinds, in many cases

U.S. MONETARY SITUATION

Roosevelt's Next Move?

Washington, Jan. 12.
While the capital and New York are tensely awaiting President Roosevelt's next move in the gold and monetary situation, the White House preserve complete silence regarding its plans.

The Attorney-General, Mr. Cummings, has submitted an opinion to the President, the nature of which has not been disclosed, concerning whether the Government can impound the Federal Reserve system's gold without special legislation.

The fact that a legal opinion has been asked for is taken to indicate that the President is considering such a move.

ABLE TO GO AHEAD.

Later.
It is announced that the President considers that he already has all the authority necessary to permit him to take over the Federal Reserve's gold, but no clue to the intentions of the White House has yet been given regarding the next move in the monetary game.

There is no indication that the President intends immediately to commandeer the Federal Reserve's $3,600,000,000 worth of gold.

CENTRAL BANK PLAN DENIED
At a press conference to-day, he denied suggestions that he was considering a project for the establishment of a central bank.

Meanwhile it is announced from New York that Mr. Frederick Kent, who has controlled all dealings in foreign currencies since the banking holiday of last Spring is resigning on January 15 his position as head of the Special Foreign Exchange Division of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, as the work has now been so organized as not to require the continuation of his services.—Reuter.

THE LOCH NESS "MONSTER"

Has Mystery Been Solved?

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)]

Breslau, Jan. 13.
The ancestral bones of the Loch Ness monster, whose friends, relatives, doubles and ghosts are propping around the civilised world, were uncovered by a scientist to-day in the depths of the Breslau Zoological Museum. The famous Viennese zoologist, Professor Zookmayer, is convinced by prolonged study of the photos and reports of the Scottish curiosity, that the animal is but one of the so-called Sowerby's whales, one rare specimen of which is in the Breslau collection.

The original had a length of 13 feet, girth 7 feet, weight 44 tons, and was washed up on the shore of the Baltic.—Transocean Kuo Min.

CHAUTEMPS KEEPS HIS PROMISE

DEPUTY BONNAURE ARRESTED

Stavisky Insured For Three Million Francs

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)]

Paris, January 13.
True to Premier Chautemps' promise that punishment would be imposed without consideration of person, Deputy Bonnaure of the Premier's own Radical-Socialist Party was arrested to-day after the Chamber had voted on Friday night to lift his Parliamentary immunity.

Bonnaure is charged with having accepted considerable sums from Stavisky to defray the costs of his election. He will be taken to Bayonne and surrendered there to the Public Prosecutor.

Further proof of the swindler's devotion to his family is adduced by Press reports that Stavisky, three years ago, insured his life with an English company for 3,000,000 Francs payable to his wife. The policy contained the usual provision that the sum is payable also in case of suicide to Stavisky's widow, and thus divert the sum swindled from the Nation's taxpayers.—Transocean Kuo Min.

ANOTHER MYSTERY

Paris, Jan. 13.
A million Frenchmen have fled charges against the Bayonne pawnshop proprietors as a unified court action brought by National Taxpayers Association in the hope of adding force to the Stavisky prosecution.—Transocean Kuo Min.

Paris, Jan. 13.
The mysterious desperation leading Stavisky to suicide has become all the more inexplicable to the French public to-day when "his brother in bonds", the banker Oustric whose financial finesse widely recognised has cost the taxpayers over a million Francs—escaped with a final sentence of one year's imprisonment in the Court of Appeal.

This economic wizard has already openly recommenced further public service by having functioned for several months as financial adviser to a Parisian Bank. Since Oustric occupied a comfortable prison bench for ten months during the legal investigation period which was long enough to exhaust the strength of the State charges, the Court of Appeal accepted the plea of the defence that two more months would equal a year of his sentence.—Transocean Kuo Min.

Paris, Jan. 13.
Further sensational revelations on the Stavisky affair are threatened by the arrested journalists, du Barry and Aymard in the event of their not being liberated. Du Barry—editor of the "Voltaire"—informed the examining magistrate that he was able to place at the latter's disposal a list of 153 names of prominent persons, mostly politicians, who had pocketed money from Stavisky.

Aymard—editor of "Liberte"—also has promised unsavory disclosures, but it is rumoured that Aymard is likely to be released on bail shortly as the charges against him turned out to be less serious than was originally anticipated.—Transocean Kuo Min.

SENSATIONAL REVELATIONS

Paris, Jan. 13.
The motion for the appointment of the Committee was defeated by 380 votes to 229.

The result of the Chamber debate is seen as a great personal victory for M. Camille Chautemps, and adds to the laurels he won on the unpopular Financial Bill which was adopted shortly after he assumed the Premiership. The Bill had caused the defeat of the three previous Cabinets.

Thanks to the defeat of the Right motion for a Parliamentary Committee of Enquiry, Justice can now take its course in the Bayonne bond fraud unhampered by political interference.—Reuter.

After the storm of Thursday night, Paris was peaceful yesterday evening. Large crowds of youths were still standing in the rain, but the Police did not expect trouble.

The Police barred the Place de la Concorde, and only privileged traffic was allowed to pass.

Cafes and restaurants were open, but the shops on the Boulevard St. Germain were closed early.—Reuter.

POLICE PROTECT CHAMBER.

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)]

Paris, Jan. 12.
With a thick blue wall of police protecting the Chamber against Thursday's sanguinary attack by protesting crowds, deputies proceeded to-day with the debate on the Stavisky scandal. The Communist deputy Ramesthe accused the entire Parisian Press of being bought at bargain prices by the national swindler. So unmerciful was the attack that it drew a reprimand from Premier Chautemps.

After the Finance Minister Bonnet described the "show" defence manoeuvres of his Ministry in hindering Stavisky from palming off a further hundred millions worth of unbacked bonds, the main attack of the day was delivered by the Right Deputy Vismegany.

He begged to doubt the durability of the Government's reform zeal of the moment, and recalling the cases of Oustric and Gusling, "which cost the French taxpayers millions and whose perpetrators

Changchun, Jan. 13.

Scores of officials and retainers who served in the Manchukuo Imperial House at Peiping are gathering at Changchun for the coronation of Mr. Henry Pu Yi, as Emperor of Manchukuo, which promises to be the most colourful event in the history of Manchuria.

It is learned that as soon as the Monarchy is established, a new protocol extending Japan's influence, will be signed.

Five ranks of nobility, from Baron to Duke have been created. An amnesty will be granted to political prisoners.

Other measures include the retention of the Cabinet system, with the authority of the Ministers considerably widened, the abolition of Japanese extraterritorial rights, far-reaching economic and financial reforms and the elevation of the Manchukuo Legation at Tokyo to the status of an Embassy.

The foreign policy will be directed mainly to developing friendly relations with the Soviet and China.—Reuter.

CRITICAL SITUATION IN AUSTRIA

British Press Comment "DAILY MAIL" DEPLORES DOLLFUSS' EFFORTS

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

London, Jan. 13. The critical situation in Austria continues to attract much attention here.

The "Times" remarks that although the National-Socialist Party no longer officially exists in Austria it has nevertheless succeeded in winning over more than a dozen different organizations which are now at its disposal.

According to the "Times" it may be definitely asserted that there is not a single organized profession in Austria, including officials who are not to a large extent in closest sympathy with the National-Socialists.

The "Daily Mail" deplores that Dollfuss in his effort to maintain Austrian independence should have dealt a crushing blow to individual liberty. The paper says that by placing the police under control of Major Fey, who is a stern disciplinarian, the Chancellor has surrendered all power to the Heimwehr. True, Fey is at loggerheads with the National-Socialists but the struggle turns exclusively on the question of which of them will be dictator.—Transocean Kuo Min.

OFFICIALS TO BE WEEDED

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Vienna, Jan. 13. In its desperate struggle against National-Socialism, the Dollfuss Government has decided to weed out all State Officials suspected of Nazi leanings. Councillor Arboeust Fieish of the Ministry of Agriculture has been appointed State Commissioner for all questions relating to the Civil Service personnel. His task will be to examine political affiliations of all State functionaries, and those suspects of sympathising with National-Socialist aims will immediately be put on the retired list or summarily dismissed.

The National-Socialist leaders Frauenfeld and Schattentfroh who were arrested on Friday have been interned in the ill-famed concentration camp of Woellerodorf where a large group of National-Socialist intellectuals, chiefly lawyers from Alpine districts arrived at the same time. A sensation has been caused by the dismissal of the Heimwehr leader, Count Albert, from the post of district leader for Lower Austria since Albert was conferring with Frauenfeld when the latter was arrested on Friday. It is assumed he was planning to leave his Heimwehr formations over in a body to the National-Socialist camp. The Count was taken into custody along with Frauenfeld but was subsequently released.—Transocean Kuo Min.

LAST DESPERATE EFFORT

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Vienna, January 12. In the last desperate effort to stem the tide of Nationalism and keep the minority Government of Dollfuss in power, the authorities are opening a new drive against the National-Socialist movement.

Three leading National-Socialist, district leader Frauenfeld, Chief editor Schattentfroh, of the suppressed National-Socialist paper "Tages Zeitung," and district leader for lower Austria, Leopold, were arrested this evening. Rumours that the Heimwehr leader, Count Albert, who was with Frauenfeld when the latter was arrested, was also taken in custody are still unconfirmed. But it is believed to be correct. Albert's arrest would throw interesting light on political developments in Austria.—Transocean Kuo Min.

A GROWING CRISIS

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Vienna, January 12. The growing crisis in Austria is signified by the nomination of Vice-Chancellor Fey of the Heimwehr as Minister of public Safety in the Dollfuss Cabinet. This shows that the tension between the Government and the opposition has reached dangerous proportions. The nomination of Vice-Chancellor Fey, noted Anti-Hitlerite, shows the growing influence of the Heimwehr which is rapidly becoming a refuge for left wing sympathisers.—Transocean Kuo Min.

FIVE GERMAN BUCCANEERS

Lively Scenes At Dairen Trial

Dairen, Jan. 13.

Accusation and counter-accusations featured the resumption of the trial of five Europeans charged with pirating the Shengnan.

Gautchi, in addressing the Court, point-blank attacked Westerner Netaudien for denying all guilt when they were the "main figures." He said that Taudien originated the plan and Westernmann "forced the hand" by starting the killing. Taudien countered by saying that Gautchi and Westernmann were the real leaders. "Just because I grounded the Shengnan they are low framing to get me." The Court was adjourned until February 15 for experts' testimony and also for the evidence of the second officer and wireless operator of the Shengnan, who are now in Tientsin.—Reuter.

On July 1 three Europeans and seven Chinese were brutally murdered by five German buccaneers when the Shengnan was 200 miles from Shanghai. Bad navigation, however, caused the ship to run aground at Hoshiyura, the famous resort near Dairen. Three arrests were then made and two later.

The skipper of the vessel, his wife, and the chief mate, all of whom were Russians, and seven of the Chinese crew were killed, their bodies being thrown overboard.

Doom, January 14.

The ex-Kaiser will spend his seventy-fifth birthday on January 27 quieter than ever in consequence of a bad attack of rheumatism compelling him to abandon his favourite pastime of wood-chopping. He said he will be watching political developments in Germany closely, although he declines to comment on recent events.

It is understood he does not approve of the Nazi policy entirely.—Reuter.

A REMARKABLE FLIGHT

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, Jan. 13. A remarkable record of thirteen hours 25 minutes for a flight from Berlin to Las Palmas, Canary Islands, was made by the new German "Heinkel Express Plane" in course of experimental flights in preparation by the German Luftwaffe's proposed trans-Atlantic service to South America. The plane piloted by Flight Captain Untucht returned to Berlin to-day having taken fifteen hours 58 minutes from Las Palmas.—Transocean Kuo Min.

NEW SILVER DISCOVERY

Likely To Increase Use of White Metal

London, Jan. 13.

A sensation has been caused among the silver interests by the discoveries of Dr. J. H. Sheldon of Wolverhampton, now released in "The British Medical Journal" of the important function of silver in the human body and in certain vegetables.

The thyroid gland is especially rich in silver, also the tonsils, particularly in childhood, thus indirectly, throwing light on the habit of some children, inferentially deficient in silver, to put coins in their mouths.

The growth of watercress and the nicotine-secreting hairs of the tobacco plant are also powerfully stimulated by silver.

It is understood that these discoveries are suggesting wide possibilities for further use of the white metal and are providing cogent arguments for the prosecution of free silver campaign to be brought early to the notice of the United States silver advocates, Senator Key Pittman and Senator Thomas.—Reuter.

MORE POWER FOR ROOSEVELT?

To Control Value of Gold Dollar

Washington, January 14.

It is authoritatively learned that Mr. Roosevelt is considering requesting congress for greater permissive authority and more latitude in compensating price fluctuations with changes in the gold value of the dollar. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation offers $500,000,000 debentures to banks from which it purchased preferred stock and capital notes. $250,000,000 will be at two per cent. for one year, the remainder three per cent. maturing in 1936.

Mr. Jesse Jones explained this is instead of paying cash.—Reuter.

A MUSSOLINI WARNING

Rome, Jan. 14. Monetary manoeuvres cannot bring about an effective lasting rise in prices and inflation leads to catastrophe, declared Sig. Mussolini when alluding to Mr. Roosevelt's economic measures in a speech in the Senate.

Who can imagine that the multiplication of monetary symbols increases the wealth of a nation?

It Duce cited that paper money in the French revolution and German inflation in 1923 and at the time warned people against passing judgement on the American experiment at present as it must be followed with great attention.

Mussolini spoke in winding up the debate on the Bill elaborating the corporation system which was finally adopted in entirety.—Reuter.

MORATORIUM EXTENDED

Washington, January 13. President Roosevelt has declared a new moratorium on the payment of a new moratorium to extend over the week-end, to the outcome of the whirlwind consultations on the monetary policy last week are not expected to be known before Monday.

President Roosevelt is reported to be considering his money policy, including bimetalism, a free gold market and the restriction of gold to the settlement of international balances.

The re-capture of the Federal Reserve's gold as a preliminary to the devaluation of the dollar, and temporary stabilisation, are also under consideration.—Reuter.

NEW ASSISTANT TREASURY SECRETARY

Washington, January 13. The United States Treasury Secretary, Mr. Henry Morgenthau, has appointed Mr. Marriher S. Eccles, President of the First National Bank of Ogden, Utah, as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in succession to Mr. Earle Bails, who has resigned.

Mr. Eccles is a silver enthusiast and a former Mormon missionary in Scotland.

His policy includes the permanent settlement of war debts, preferably by cancellation.—Reuter.

MORE TROUBLE IN HAVANA

City Plunged into Darkness

Havana, January 14. Trouble has again broken out in Havana where a strike of power workers plunged the city into darkness, water supply was cut off and all traffic paralysed. Lawyers and doctors joined the strike when Government closed the hospitals and soldiers were engaged to help to remove the patients. The British Consulate has promised to embark all British residents within two hours in case of necessity.—Reuter.

REVOLT COLLAPSING

Peiping, January 13. According to reports from the south the rebellion in Fukien is on the point of collapse. Two Government divisions are reported to have broken through the XIX Army at Minghsien.

The XIX Army has sent every available soldier to the front, where all commanders have already arrived.

Every form of transport, including motor-buses and rickshaws, has been used to carry troops, munitions and supplies to the front.—Reuter.

NANKING FORCES MOVING SOUTH

Nanking, January 13. A telegram from General Yu Pei Feng says that the Government troops entered the walled town of Kutien at noon yesterday, the rebels being disarmed and taken prisoner.

According to Chinese Press despatches, the advanced guards of the Government forces are pushing south from Kutien and have already reached Taping, about 30 li from the northern gate Foochow.—Reuter.

A PEACEFUL WITHDRAWAL

Nanking, January 14. Interviewed by Reuter this morning, Admiral Li Shih Chia, Vice-Minister of the Navy, confirmed the capture of Foochow by the Nanking Navy yesterday. He said that 3,000 marines commanded by Admiral Li Shen Ping had landed at Foochow without fighting and that the defenders had peacefully withdrawn following the handing over of the City to the Navy.

He said that Admiral Chen, Chi Liang arrived at Foochow last evening, while Minister of the Navy Chen Shao Kuan was expected at Foochow from Amoy this morning in order to attend to the rehabilitation of affairs there. Admiral Li added that the Navy Minister was returning to Nanking early next week.—Reuter.

LEAVING NOTHING TO CHANCE

Hong Kong Naval authorities are leaving nothing to chance in connection with the protection of lives and property of British subjects at Foochow. His Majesty's Berwick left for Foochow this morning.

Meanwhile, Chinese reports state that 200 Japanese Marines landed to afford similar protection to their own nationals.—Reuter.

SITUATION REVERSED

[From Our Special Correspondent]

Canton, January 14. The reversed situation in Fukien has greatly affected the defence of Kwangtung, and it is generally expected that with the overwhelming defeat of the Nineteenth Route Army the authorities of the South-west will be compelled to change their attitude in regard to the political situation in the South.

The concentration of over twenty divisions of Nanking troops in Chekiang to attack Fukien arouses the grave suspicion of the military authorities of the South-west as they do not believe that it should be necessary to amass such a large army to invade Fukien since the Nineteenth Route Army has only a strength of about 60,000 men. The military leaders here suspect that besides the invasion of Fukien, General Chiang Kai Shek, Chairman of the Nanking Military Council, has another motive behind his campaign against Fukien or else he would not have mustered such a large army along the Fukien-Chekiang frontier.

In view of these circumstances they conjecture that as soon as the Fukien rebels are suppressed the Nanking forces will penetrate Fukien and push towards Kwangtung to dissolve the semi-independent government of the Southwest.

Owing to this grave issue General Chen Chai Tong, the Commander-in-Chief of the First Group Army, summoned a military conference yesterday at the headquarters of the First Group Army in order to discuss detailed plans for the defence of this province. The meeting was attended by all leading commanders and staff officers of the First Group Army.

At this conference, it is learned, that a comprehensive scheme has been decided on, and should General Chiang venture to invade Kwangtung, the military authorities will shorten the defence line of southern Kiangsi but will stoutly defend the East River region which is the only possible route for the Nanking troops to attack Kwangtung. Furthermore, if the Fukien Government is dissolved Canton will enlist all officers and men of the 19th Route Army and preserve the military standing of General Tsai Ting Kai who will be assigned to lead the troops against Nanking.

WORLD SUGAR CONFERENCE

Washington, Jan. 12. President Roosevelt has announced that he favours American participation in an informal meeting of sugar-producing nations to discuss the possibility of a successful world sugar conference.—Reuter.

SHIELD COMPETITION

H.K. Police v. R.A.

Playing in the first round of the Senior Shield Competition on the Military ground at Happy Valley, the Police entered the second round by the only goal scored during extra time. The Gunners were forced to take the field without Allan and Pardoe who are on the sick list.

Combey was outstanding for the Gunners and his fine work in goal kept the Police down to the one goal.

The first half went in favour of the Police in midfield, and the good work of Wroe and Combey in the Gunners defence had a lot to do with extra time being played, for the Police should have been leading at the interval.

The Gunners improved during the second half and it was McHardy's who called upon to save the Police.

Stephens led an attack by the Police on the R.A. goal and slip the ball to Moss close in he failed to shoot.

In the closing minutes play, the Police continued to press, but the Gunners defended with a blank sheet.

The first portion of the extra time the Gunners forced a corner, a shot from the line and from his hands the ball into the net to win the match for the Police, but Combey saved.

Carrying over for the final lap, the Gunners carried the game into the Gunners' half, but failed to again get the ball into the net.

FOOTBALL ON SUNDAY

Just that final dash in front of goal gave the East Lancashires that advantage in a match very keenly contested. East Lancashires. — Harmsworth; Swain, Gorman; Rothwell, Richardson; North; Lt. Salmon, Horner, Smith, Woods and Tuley. Kowloon F.C. — Cord; Bliss, Jones; Davies, Yeoman, McQuade; Cook, V. White, Reed, Elliott and Blake.

St. Joseph's v. R. Navy.

St. Joseph's drew nearer to the championship when they beat the Navy at Caroline Hill by two clear goals.

The Navy had hard luck in the opening minutes for Langmead sent in a well placed shot which Marquis just reached in time to round the post. Two corners to the Navy were fruitless. A breakaway by the Saints found Ward through and slipping the ball to Leonard who was unmarked. David made no mistake and beat Woodman to open the score.

B. Gosano lobbed the ball in the goalmouth and Leonard headed into Woodman's hands. A free kick to St. Joseph's just outside the penalty area gave them a chance to increase their lead, but Belrao cleared the bar from the free kick. Langmead sent out to the left and Skinner sending across, the wind carried the ball behind. B. Gosano shot over the bar and Skinner was sent away again but his centre went behind. A scramble in the Saints area ended when Fairless shot through a crowd of players, the ball going behind off a defender for a fruitless corner.

Resuming a goal down, the Navy got away, but Perkins was too anxious, shooting over the bar from thirty yards. Leonard received near the halfway line and rounding James went on to beat Woodman from close range. Langmead sent Fairless in, but the winger shot wide. B. Gosano running in after receiving from Leonard, landed on top of the bar, the ball bouncing behind. Again Fairless was sent in, but his shot just cleared the upright. Skinner got in a hard shot from close range. Elms running across charged the shot down and kicked behind. Costa sent over from the touch line and Woodman was forced to turn over the bar. After Rocha had tested Woodman with a fast shot, the Navy got through, Skinner having a shot charged down by Elms close in. Langmead had a glorious chance to score, but he lifted the ball over the bar from the goal area.

A centre by A. Gosano was pulled down by Leonard, a free kick referee. Leonard was hurt and left the field. Tong should have scored for the Navy, but he shot wild from the goal area line and the ball went over the bar. St. Joseph's — R. Marquis, Souza, A. V. Gosano; V. Marquis, Belrao, Elms; B. Gosano, Ward, Leonard, Rocha and Costa.

R. Navy — Woodman; James, West, Perkins, Thomas, Kefford; Fairless, Morgan, Langmead, Tong and Skinner.

Recreo v. H.K. Club.

The Recreo failing to convert a penalty kick, and having a penalty kick scored against them in the closing minutes, were unfortunate in losing both points in their match with the Club at King's Park, the score reading at the close, Club 3, Recreo 2.

The game was very evenly contested during the first half, the defence on both being too good for the attack.

The Club opened out the play from the kick off, but found the Recreo defenders in good form. Silva-Netto was very safe and the Club left wing could make little headway against him.

He was ably assisted by Bowen, who had the advantage in height with the ball in the air. The Recreo forwards made several attempts to get through, but Strange and Hill were safe. Lawson did well to clear any stray shots and the interval arrived with a blank sheet.

The Club took the lead early in the second half, Domingy heading in to beat Marquis from a corner kick. Having once found the net, the Club increased their lead, Domingy again being successful, the ball entering the net just under the bar, with Marquis well beaten.

Being two goals down, the Recreo rallied and had the Club defending. A penalty to the home team was taken by Souza, who threw away a good chance by shooting wide from the spot.

Keeping up the pressure the Recreo opened their score through Souza, who beat Lawson with a fast low shot. With this success the home team went to level up and Gomes was successful with a shot that had the goalkeeper unseeing.

With the score two all, both teams tried hard for the winning goal. Fowler was running through when he was dropped inside the penalty area. Bowen, Hynes took the kick and Marquis saved.

The referee ordered the kick to be retaken and Hynes netted to give the Club full points.

Recreo — E. Marquis; Silva-Netto; Bowen; McGrann, Delgado, Maher, Castilho, Gonalves, Souza, Gomes and Pereira.

H.K. Club — Lawson; Hill, S. Strange; Skinner, Hynes, A. Duncan, Fowler, Domingy, Howe, E. Strange and Bickford.

DIVISION II.

S.W.B. v. Kowloon.

Playing on the Railway ground, the Borderers just managed to defeat Kowloon, the score reading when the final whistle sounded Borderers 2, Kowloon 1.

On the general run of the play, the Borderers should have won by a larger margin. Kowloon was weak in attack. The Borderers made several raids on the Kowloon goal. Everest and Docherty playing safe at back for the home team.

Sookunpoo is not South China's favourite ground for they went down there to the Gunners in a Division I match yesterday. The Gunners made a good fight and taking the lead unexpectedly by two goals, they had South China beaten. South China had out their full team. The Gunners brought in Allen as leader and he opened out the game with his swinging passes to the wings.

A brief visit to the R.A. goal, Combey clearing from Leung Shui Yick, Allen sent Best away on the left and he sent the ball over. Chu Ka Ping's head into the net, without a murmur from the large number of supporters, who were more or less taken by surprise.

A greater surprise was in store for the South China supporters for the ball was again in the net in less than a minute after it was taken out to be placed in the centre of the field. Rodgers in the pivotal position, for the Gunners, sent the ball out to Snook who reached for the ball towards the goal, Allen dashed in and net Pau a few yards out of goal and a hard kick by Allen sent the ball into the net with Pau absent. Having a two goals lead the Gunners gave nothing away and held until the interval.

South China opened the second half with a raid on the Gunners goal and Fung receiving from Tay Quee Liang, placed the ball in the net well out of South China's reach. The first South China almost brought down the house, the cheers reaching through the valley. Snook went in on the right and Lee turned out his shot to Birmingham who sent in a fast low shot which Pau stopped near the foot of the upright. Combey stopped a shot from Fung and before he could recover, Tay sent in a smashing shot, the ball striking the bar with Combey absent and Lee taking the rebound shot over the bar. South China forced a corner and Tam headed in from the flag kick and this ball hit the underside of the bar with Combey bent. The ball bounced well clear of the line and Greenshields cleared. Combey fell on the ball about twelve yards out and was soon surrounded by a crowd of players who tried to get the ball away. Combey appeared to be hurt and play was stopped for a few seconds for him to recover.

Resuming the referee dropped the ball down inside the area and Greenshields took the ball away from the crowd. The final whistle sounded with the R.A. winners by two goals to one.

Kowloon improved when play resumed, but they failed to add to their score. Morris scored for the Borderers before the final whistle sounded.

Royal Navy v. H.K. Club.

The Navy failed to take full points on the Club ground and shared them with the Hong Kong Club, the final score reading one all. The Club were in the advantage during the first half and although they failed to take the lead, they had several chances, but shooting was wild. The Navy took the lead early in the second half, McNeil beating Forrow from close range.

The Club were defending in the opening minutes of the second half, Kaiton and Boyd being very sound. Fisher got away on the Club right and dropping close in with a good centre, Duncan headed the ball well out of Mann's reach. There was no further scoring.

Lincolns v. Athletic.

Playing on the Chatham Road ground, the Lincolns put on nine goals against the Athletic. The Lincolns opened the score from a penalty kick, Robson converting. McGuinness increased their lead soon after. The Lincolns third goal came from a penalty kick, Robson converting. Clayton got through from the wing and sent in a fast low shot, the ball entering the net. A penalty for the Athletic was converted by Koo Hung Cheong.

Leading by four goals to one, the Lincolns went further ahead early in the second half, Maughan scoring twice. Toyns scored the 7th goal. Chan Suk Chuen put the ball into his own net in trying to shoot. Koo Hung Cheong reduced the lead with a fast cross shot. Before the referee's whistle sounded, McGuinness scored again for the Lincolns giving them a win by nine goals to two.

South China v. Young Indians.

Rowdian characterised the football at Caroline Hill between South China and the Young Indians in a junior game.

South China were leading by two goals when play was stopped, several players being ordered off and the rest cautioned by the referee.

Early in the second half, South China opened the score through Yeung Kok Wa after K. M. Omar of the Indians had left the field through injury. Kam Sek Wah put the South China team two up. Haroon of the Young Indians was ordered off the field and this led up to very rough play. The referee stopped the match and cautioned the players of both teams.

Shortly after Hussein and Yeung Poon Hon were sent off for fighting. More fighting occurred between the players and the spectators encroached on the field and joined in the fight. The Referee was forced to abandon the match.

DIVISION III.

S.W.B. v. South China.

This match was played on the Military ground at Happy Valley, the South China team winning by the odd goal in extra time.

There was a large crowd of Chinese on the touch line and play was handicapped through them crowding over the lines.

Leaders Still In Great Trim

CAER CLARK CUP.

Three games in the Caer Clark Cup competition were decided on Saturday, and the results in all games provided no surprise. The Hong Kong Ladies, winners last year, are still unbeaten, while St. Andrew's Club Ladies, who are strong challengers this year, are going great guns.

Champions Win Easily.

The Champions won by eight goals in their match against the Central British School girls at Sookunpoo. This is the highest score obtained in any league match this season. Miss Bonnar (3), Miss Churchill (2), Miss Dalziel (2) and Miss Pope (1) were the scorers.

The teams were:— Hong Kong Ladies:—M. Bird, E. Gray, B. Hebling, M. Wallace, B. Pope, M. K. Lowe, E. Bell, J. Dalziel, E. Bonnar, J. Churchill and B. Goldman.

C.B.S.:—D. Moss, R. Ingram, J. Bryson, J. de Chaffoy, M. McCaw, J. Lakeman, H. Knill, L. Hickey, Joy Booker, J. Booker and R. Roussau.

St. Andrew's Win.

By a margin of five goals, St. Andrew's kept up their leadership in the league table for the Caer Clark Cup, when they defeated the Club de Recreo "B" team on Saturday.

The match was played on the Marina ground, and although the Portuguese team was outclassed they managed to give a good account of themselves. Miss M. Woolley (3), I. Gittins and P. Gittins, were the goal scorers.

St. Andrew's:—R. Rose, G. White, E. Landolt, I. Woolley, J. Wong, M. Churn, F. Wong, I. Rogers, M. Woolley, I. Gittins and P. Gittins.

Recreo "B":—C. Rosa, T. Noronha, O. Botelho, M. Xavier, E. Rosario, Y. Brito, M. Westerhout, C. Botelho, O. Ribeiro, I. Botelho and M. Figueiredo.

A Drawn Game.

The match at King's Park between the Club de Recreo "A" and the Central British Association was very thrilling indeed, as both sides were of equal strength and played well. The result of a goalless draw is a fair indication of the relative strength of the teams.

In the first half, the Recreo were definitely superior but the Central British Association backs stood up to the work required of them and when it became their turn to be dominant in the second half, the Portuguese girls were equal to the occasion. The match was one of the best of the season's competition.

The teams were as follows:—

C.B.A. Ladies:—Mrs. Webber, P. Woolley, Miss S. K. Walker, E. Beavis, M. Bryson, M. Whitley, E. Woolley, Mrs. Miles, M. Smith, D. Hunt and G. MacNider.

Recreo "A":—R. D'Almada, M. Basto, C. Osmund, L. Xavier, M. Alves, L. Silva-Netto, M. Remedios, A. Alves, C. Silva, M. Roza and P. Remedios.

RUGBY GAME AGAINST AUSTRALIANS

Selections Announced By The Committee

CLUB BEAT ARMY IN TRIANGULAR TOURNAMENT

Changes In Club XV Are Vindicated

BY WING THREE

In a rather scrappy game, which, however, was very keenly contested and produced occasionally flashes of clever individual play and a few good passing movements, the Club defeated the Army by two goals, a penalty and a try (16 points) to two goals and a try (13 points) in their final game of the Triangular series. In their previous game against the Army it will be remembered that they lost 6-3.

Lammert opened the scoring in the first half, but McLellan failed to add the major points from a difficult angle. Later the Club increased their score with a penalty goal kicked by McLellan, when Hewitt, the Army scrum-half, was penalised for off-side from a scrum.

LAMMERT DRAWS FIRST BLOOD

The Army made a great effort after this and they deserved their reward when Gould crossed over after some very good passing. Lloyd converted. The Army fought hard from the kick-off and again slowly gained ground by a series of short rushes in which footwork was the chief factor. At this point the Club seemed to be all at sea, fumbling and doing the wrong thing. The try which Metcalf got, while well-deserved owing to the tenacity displayed, was really a gift from an unaccountably ragged Club XV. Lloyd converted to give the Army a 10-6 lead.

However the Club pulled themselves well together and had decided the better of the game from then onwards. Shortly before the interval Turner, who had just badly fumbled, recovered beautifully to execute a fine swerving cut through. He was backed up well by King who, receiving the pass, made a good short run to cross over. McLellan converted to give the club the lead by 11-10.

After the Interval.

Play during the second half was marred by continuous off-side on the part of the Army forwards. The Club were definitely superior in this half and showed improved passing in the three-quarter line and distinctly better work for the forwards. Two very good runs by McLellan almost resulted in tries. Eventually Lammert crossed over well in a good position for McLellan to add the additional points giving the Club a 16-10 lead. Griffiths played a prominent part in this try by a good run and a very nicely-judged pass to Lammert.

The Club still pressed after this and might have scored again. However the Army by a piece of unexpected opportunism scored again through Gould just before the whistle sounded. Lloyd failed to convert.

Summary of Club Play.

The result of a win is the most decisive argument in favour of the changed Club XV on Saturday. Had they been up against stiffer opposition the result would have been the same as a larger margin of points would have been justified on the run of the play. While Meeks is not all that could be desired, fumbling at times, he was a distinct improvement, passing well on an average and very often smothering the nippy little Army Scrum half, Hewitt. The forward combination was infinitely better, McLellan being quite outstanding as a winger. Cumming also justified his selection. While preferring to see Monroe in Moutrie's place, I must admit that the latter showed improved form.

Of the three Ferguson found an off-day. Rigg deserves a place when Robertson is not available. His hands are not as safe as they might be but he is fast and tackles well. Griffiths was infinitely better than for some time past. He is still inclined to hang on a bit, but his tackling was much better and, if he models his passing on the one he gave Lammert to go over with he deserves his place in the XV.

Lt. Lampen, R.N., refereed and lined up the following:—

Club.—J. P. Whitham, J. J. Ferguson, W. H. B. Rigg, R. H. Griffiths and G. P. Lammert; M. W. Turner and H. C. Meeks (half backs); I. H. Bradford, R. G. Castleton, A. F. Walkden, W. E. Peers, D. A. Cumming, D. McLellan, G. C. Moutrie and R. O. F. King.

Army.—Smith (S.W.B.); Martin (S.W.B.); Simmonds (S.W.B.); Gould (S.W.B.); Roissier (Lincoln); Birt (R.A.) and Hewitt (S.W.B.); Hardy (S.W.B.); Hobert

THE AUSTRALIAN GAME

Hong Kong will Miss Evans, Miers, Ford

The following have been selected to represent the Colony on Thursday afternoon against the Australian XV who will be arriving on the Kaituma Maru in the morning and leaving again at mid-night:—
J. P. Whitham (Club)
J. J. Ferguson (Club)
Lt. Martin (S. W. B.)
L. G. Robertson (Club)
G. P. Lammert (Club)
M. W. Turner (Club)
Lt. Forbes (Navy) (Capt.)
Comdr. Hoome (Navy)
Ldg. Cook Pascoe (Navy)
Lt. Linton (Navy)
I. H. Bradford (Club)
Lt. Herbert (Army)
Lt. Brown (Navy)
Lt. Whitfield (Navy)
E. A. Hammett (Navy)

Reserves—Lt. Buckley (Navy), R. H. Griffiths (Club), Pte. Lloyd (S. W. B.) and D. McLellan (Club).
Referee—Dr. J. A. R. Selby (Club)

Members of the Colony team are requested to turn up to a practice on the Club ground to-day at 5.15 p.m.
The Hongkong side is not a representative one owing to the absence of Lt. St. Clair Ford and Lt. Miers who are on the injured list and Lt. Evans, Nixon and Slater, who are away. Lt. Currie is also injured but I very much doubt if he would have been picked instead of Lammert. However, Ford will be badly missed as Ferguson, though a hearty player, lacks experience and is weak in his defence. Turner is a good substitute for Miers, but the Navy player's absence is a blow.

In selecting Whitham instead of Lt. Buckley, the Committee have shown excellent judgement, with all due respect to the fine Navy back. Whitham's splendid defence against the attack of the Navy on past occasions has always been outstanding. But I should like to have seen McLellan playing as he is a fine wing forward, and it is also unfortunate that Lt. Evans the English International is away.

The visitors will be met on their arrival by officials of the Hong Kong Football Club and members of the local Amateur Association. They will be guests at the monthlyiffin of the Association and will then do what little sight-seeing is possible before 4 p.m. when a photograph of the two teams will be taken outside the Clubhouse at Happy Valley. The game is scheduled to commence at 4.15 p.m.

An informal dinner is being given by the Football Club at Gloucester Building at 8 p.m., tickets ($6.00, including drinks before dinner) being obtained at the Clubhouse.

Tickets for the game ($1.00 and 50 cents) can be purchased from Mr. S. H. Garrod, c/o Canadian Pacific Steamships, Mr. G. C. Moutrie, c/o Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, or the Clubhouse.

Composition of Side.

Ten players from the University of Queensland, eight from the University of Sydney, two from the University of Adelaide, one from the University of Melbourne, and one from the University of Perth.

(R.A.), Barraclough (R.A.), Lloyd (S.W.B.), Gilmore (S.W.B.), Metcalf (R.A.), Jones (S.W.B.) and Walters (S.W.B.).

have been included in the Australian team.

The selectors, who completed their choice by telephone, experienced considerable difficulty owing to the unavailability of several players, including some who were in the team originally chosen.

The following are players selected:—

Backs: R. Westfield (Sydney), fullback, captain; D. Burditt (Sydney), winger; J. C. F. Minnis (Queensland), winger; D. O'Connor (Adelaide), wing or centre; R. W. Hayes (Queensland), centre or wing; P. Clarke (Queensland), centre; F. R. Vincent (Queensland), centre; J. W. Evans (Queensland), five-eighths; H. Rees (Sydney), five-eighths; A. M. Barron (Sydney), half-back; E. S. Rogers (Sydney), utility back.
Forwards: C. F. McWilliam, vice-captain; R. Duval, R. Mackay (Sydney), R. P. Cator, G. T. Pearce, J. Ryan, H. Stumm, V. W. Wilson (Queensland), H. E. C. Lyons (Adelaide), T. R. B. Courtney (Melbourne), G. R. Burckett (Perth).

PRIVATE'S ESCAPE

Kowloon Jewellery Store Suffers

Private John Henry Sanby of the "C" Company, Lincolnshire Regiment, is reported to have been responsible for smashing the plate glass window of the Bogdanoff Jewellery Store at the corner of Peking and Hankow Roads on Saturday morning.

It is alleged that he then helped himself to a miscellaneous collection of jewellery, clocks, etc., which he carried in a rucksack to the barracks at Shamshui.

Early on Saturday morning he returned to the shop and spoke to the proprietor about the theft. He was given into custody. Later, he was charged at the Yau-mai Police Station and then taken back to barracks. Most of the articles which he had removed from the store were recovered.

STONING OF BRITISH LEGATION

American and British Envoys At Havana In Conference

Havana, Jan. 7.
Mr. Jefferson Caffery, United States Ambassador to Cuba, yesterday held a conference with his British colleague, the subject of the conversation being, it is believed, the demonstration staged yesterday in front of the British Legation when the building was stoned by the mob.

An outbreak of disturbances is believed to be imminent seeing that the Cuban population becomes more and more excited and shows more inclination than ever to street demonstrations, which situation the extremists are trying to exploit in order to provoke a mass movement and handicap the elections to the Constituent Assembly.

Numerous bomb explosions occurred in various parts of the Cuban Capital, killing one lieutenant and three soldiers.—Havana.

STABBING AFFRAY

Chinese Found Unconscious In Kowloon

The finding of the body of a Chinese of about 30 years of age, lying unconscious near the "How Wong Temple, Kowloon, is now engaging the attention of the Police. The victim was found to be suffering from several severe stab wounds. He is now in the Kowloon Hospital in a very serious condition.

According to a police report the victim is unemployed, and had recently arrived here from Wu Chow.

BRITISH PRESS SPECULATES

On Nabersberg's Visit to London

London, Jan. 14.
A spiritual union of the Anglo-German youth movement proves to be the object of the visit to London by Nabersberg, a prominent Nazi official whose presence has so far been a matter of speculation and curiosity in British newspapers.

Nabersberg when interviewed said he intended to see Lord Baden Powell but as the latter is ill he would confer with another leading Boy Scout official. His aim is to establish personal contacts with representatives of British youth organisations to establish permanent relations encouraged by youth movements in the two countries.—Reuter.

PREMIER GOES TO SANDRINGHAM

London, Jan. 12.
The Prime Minister left London this afternoon for Sandringham where he will be the guest of the King during the week-end. He is returning to London on Monday.—British Wireless.

MRS. H. CHRISTIE'S DEATH

Verdict of Suicide

Shanghai, Jan. 13.
A verdict of suicide was returned by the Coroner here at the inquest on the death of Mrs. Hazel Christie, and American-born British subject, who was found dead in a street in the French Concession, on the morning of January 8. At the time of the discovery, it appeared that she had either jumped or fallen from the third storey of an apartment house.

During the previous evening she had been involved in a brawl with another woman.—Reuter's Pacific Service.

SCOUTING IN KOWLOON

St. Andrew's Troop Have Good Year

Whilst the following is not an official review of the working of the 6th Kowloon Boy Scout Troop (St. Andrew's Troop) during the year 1933 it is nevertheless a resume of what has been accomplished by this troop under the leadership of Scoutmaster R. Dornier and Asst. S. M. Wong during the past twelve months, and we feel justified in stating that all connected with the troop can look back on it with satisfaction and pardonable pride.

Scouting as a local Scoutmaster said recently, is not necessarily "pothunting," and it is interesting to note that the spirit of scouting has remained with the 6th Kowloon Troop notwithstanding the fact that its members were able to carry off the Sports Swimming Trophy, having beaten practically every other troop in the Colony, as well as being runners up in the Association Prince of Wales' Banner Rally. These are efforts to be proud of.

The meetings throughout the year have been most successful, and a number of jolly camps were held. Examinations and tests were conducted and the troop now possesses a number of First Class Scouts.

It will interest readers to know that St. Andrew's Troop have lately lost three good Scouts who, having decided that they had reached an age where a little more intensive training than one gets in scouting was necessary to them, have now become members of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps. Another old member of the 6th Kowloon sometime ago joined the army and is now stationed with the Lincolnshire Regiment at Shanghai.

The annual Christmas treat arranged by and for the 6th Kowloon Troop is an event greatly looked forward to by Kowloon youth, and the affair held last month was not an exception. The chief item of interest during the year was the competing for the "Banner" Cup which was won by the "Swift" patrol. The "Lions" were runners up and winners of the "Armstrong" Trophy. The "Eagles," another patrol, did extremely good work in the competition.

Although the troop has lost a few members lately other new boys are joining up, and the ranks are also being added to by youngsters who are now emerging from the "Wolf Cub" stage. Scouting is to be encouraged at not only at Kowloon but throughout the colony, and it all local boys follow the example of these few Kowloon lads, local scouting will in time be even more successful than it is now.

BURIAL OF VAN DER LUBBE

Dutch Request Refused

Amsterdam, Jan. 12.
Contrary to an intimation given on Wednesday to the Dutch Consul, the German Government has decided not to allow the body of Van der Lubbe, executed for his part in the firing of the Reichstag building, to be buried in Holland.

The Public Prosecutor has notified the funeral undertaker, Leyden, that the body may not be removed to Holland, but will be available until noon to-morrow for simple burial at Leipzig, without ceremony.

The decision has surprised both the relatives of Van der Lubbe and Dutch official circles.

It is learned that the Dutch Government has given instructions to the Dutch Minister in Berlin to take immediate steps in view of the latest decision.—Reuter.

CAPT. A. EDEN'S NEW APPOINTMENT

London, Jan. 12.
Speaking at Warwick to-night, Captain Anthony Eden referred to his new appointment as Lord Privy Seal and said he was glad it would not materially effect the work he had been engaged in for the last two years.

His connection with the Foreign Office would not be severed and he would continue to work under his present chief, Sir John Simon.

Touching briefly on the disarmament question, he emphasised the beneficial effect on trade owing to increased international confidence that would result from a successful outcome of the Disarmament Conference. He said a downward tendency in expenditure upon world armaments would be taken as a sign of growing goodwill. Thus, more effectively than by any other means, could we assist to dispel the clouds of international suspicion which still lie heavy upon the horizon.

The Disarmament Conference meant so much more to-day than its own name signified in its limited technical sense. It had become a barometer of world goodwill, a gauge by which world public opinion might measure the capacity of the nations to agree.—British Wireless.

BRITISH LOAN REDEMPTION

London, Jan. 12.
The Treasury has given notice of intention to redeem £105,000,000 of four per cent. 1934/35 bonds, issued in 1930.

The Treasury will probably finance the operation by fresh borrowing at a lower rate of interest.—Reuter.

SUFFOLK AS FLAGSHIP

London, Jan. 12.
The Admiralty announce that the flag of the commander-in-chief of the China Station, Admiral Sir Frederic Dreyer will be transferred from H.M.S. Kent to H.M.S. Suffolk on January 31.—Reuter.

BIG COURTAULD'S SCHEME

London, Jan. 12.
Messrs. Courtauld's, the famous artificial silk firm, have announced that they are extending their production by about thirty per cent and making reductions in viscose yarn prices of the products averaging about threepence per pound.—Reuter.

COLWYN MEDAL

Awarded to Dr. Devries

London, Jan. 12.
The Colwyn Gold Medal of the Institution of the Rubber Industry, has been awarded to Dr. Devries, the former Director of the Buitenzorg rubber station.—Reuter.

PROTECTION FOR BLUE EAGLE

Washington, Jan. 12.
The Treasury has issued orders to Customs collectors to refuse entry to foreign merchandise bearing the "Blue Eagle" sign.
A large consignment of tannery skin from Japan was seized in Washington yesterday, bearing the N. R. A. symbol.—Reuter.

NEW GOVERNOR OF PUERTO RICO

Washington, Jan. 12.
President Roosevelt has appointed General Blanton Winship to be Governor of Puerto Rico, in succession to Mr. E. N. Gore, who has tendered his resignation.—Reuter.

LORD MARLEY AGITATING

For Release Of Noulens

London, Jan. 13.
In a letter to the "Manchester Guardian" Lord Marley, the Labour Peer, who headed the Anti-War League, whose proposed meetings were banned in Shanghai and Japan, invites signatures for a petition to the Chinese Government for the release of Mr. and Mrs. Ruegg alias Mr. Paul and Mrs. Gertrude Noulens.

The letter states that they were imprisoned "for Trade Union activities."

"It was felt that the offence in no way justified such a savage sentence, and the circumstances of the trial cast doubts on the impartiality of the administration of justice," the letter declares.—Reuter.

H.M.S. NELSON REFLOATED

Divers Discover No
Damage

London, Jan. 13.
The battleship "H.M.S. Nelson," which was refloated last evening
after being aground for nearly nine hours on a sand and shingle bank outside Portsmouth, harbour, was berthed in harbour at nine o'clock last night. Internal examination was immediately undertaken and divers were sent down to report on the condition of the hull. Early this afternoon the Admiralty announced that the examination of the hull was now complete and no damage had been discovered. Arrangements are being made for the "Nelson" to sail on Sunday forenoon and she will rejoin the fleet at Arosa Bay. The programme for the Spring Cruise is not otherwise affected.—British Wireless.

CANNOT LEAVE GERMANY.

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

The Hague, Jan. 12.
The body of the Reichstag arson-
ist Van Der Lubbe who was executed last Wednesday in Leipzig, will probably be given a quiet burial
in Germany according to information from "Antia" news agency here.
Efforts had been made by friends of the Van Der Lubbe family to raise funds by public subscription in order to have the body brought to Holland and interred in a cemetery near Leyden. The Undertakers in Leyden however received a telegram from the Prosecutor-General in Leipzig stating the body cannot be taken out of Germany but will be held until noon of Jan. 13th
at the disposal of Lubbe's relatives in Germany. Arrangements to this effect will presumably be made by the Dutch lawyer Stoppes acting on behalf of the Van Der Lubbe family.

4 PER CENT TREASURY BONDS

To Be Redeemed On April 15

London, Jan. 1.
The Treasury gave notice last night of repayment of four per cent Treasury Bonds, 1934/36, on April 15th which is the earliest date on which the right of redemption occurs. These bonds, the outstanding amount of which is £105,000,000 were issued in 1930. The fact that nothing is said in the notice about a new issue to replace the maturing bonds is interpreted in the City to mean that the Government do not propose to issue
a replacement loan for the time being.

The "Times" City Editor regards
this decision as wise and prudent.
It is added, is undeniably strong with an exceptionally easy monetary situation and it is probable the Treasury will be able to obtain better terms by waiting.
Whether the new issue will take the form of a short term or long term loan, says the "Times," it may be assumed the operation will result in a saving to the Exchequer.

DISARMAMENT PROBLEM

Sir J. Simon to Lead
British Delegation

London, Jan. 13.
According to present arrangements the Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, will leave London for Geneva about the middle of next week to take over the leadership of the British Delegation at a meeting of the Council of the League of Nations. The Council meeting opens on Monday and until the arrival of Sir John Simon, the British delegation will be led by Capt. Anthony Eden, Lord of the Privy Seal who leaves for Geneva on Sunday.

FILM ACCENT PROBLEM

Leading Stars to be Exchanged
A plan to solve the problem of national accents in films intended for both the British and the American markets is announced by Mr.
Sidney R. Kent, president of the Fox Film Corporation. Mr. Kent proposes that leading stars should be exchanged between the two countries.

The interchange will affect, as a beginning, Warner Baxter and Spencer Tracy, of the Fox Company, and Madeleine Carroll and Jessie Matthews of the Gaumont-Mutual. It will be made with one picture in each country, and, if it is successful, will be extended.

"The question of accents is of considerable practical importance," said Mr. Kent. "It is no use making pictures for the international market if people in another country won't swallow the accents."
There are some English players who are highly successful in America. There are others whom people in the smaller towns simply cannot understand. Olive Brook in "Cavalcade" was partly unintelligible to a large percentage of the American population. So was Una O'Connor, good though her performance was.

"Diana Wynyard, on the other hand gave our people no trouble, and they are beginning to understand Herbert Mundin.

"Just as American accents have been modified to suit international tastes, so I think the accents of some—not all—English players will have to be toned down before their pictures can have the widest possible market."

Still, there remain grounds for complaint. One hears of the steward who is too much on his dignity to pull a trunk out from under a bunk. And of the one who tells a passenger to carry his mattress up on deck himself, as
that is not part of a steward's work. Maybe it is not. And certainly those are very exceptional stewards. But each of them induces a traveller to make his next voyage on a foreign vessel. The little more attention which is not definitely part of the job,
these things attract passengers.
And the more passengers we carry,
the fewer stewards unemployed.

NOW ON SALE Changing China Autumn Quarter

A quarterly non-political review of life and conditions in China.

"... Changing China is an interesting and useful quarterly. The articles which it contains have been written in the form of letters by men and women of various ranks of life who are living in the interior of China.
The reader gets a picture or rather a series of pictures of life in Modern China, and at the same time a resumé of the progress made in industrial development during the past quarter."

CHANGING CHINA. A Quarterly Non-Political Review of Life and Conditions in Modern China.
Vol. I, No. 1 April, 1933, 128 pp. Vol. I, No.
2, July, 1933, 128 pp. 7 x 4 1/2. Hongkong Daily Press (53, Fleet Street, E.C.4.), 1s. 6d. n. each.
In a preface, the editor explains that the purpose of this newly established quarterly is to keep a record of the progress of events in all parts of China and, by disseminating a fuller knowledge of the country's actual conditions and needs, to assist in the promotion of trade and a better understanding between East and West. To this end, qualified correspondents in every province have undertaken to supply reports, commentaries, and forecasts. The first two numbers contain several articles on interesting subjects—e.g., the industrial development of the Kwang provinces, the spread of Communism, the condition of the native cotton industry, and the Mind of Young China.

AIR BOMBERS FOR SINGAPORE

A 11,000-mile Flight

London, Jan. 12.
The first flight to Singapore of a Royal Air Force unit from Iraq will start to-morrow.
Single-engined bombers of No. 84 Squadron, accompanied by two transport bombers, will leave Shabab.

The machines will fly via Karachi, Calcutta and Rangoon,
and will arrive about the 28th inst.
The presence of transport bombers will enable spare parts to be carried; thus the single engined bombers will be much less dependent on bases than they would otherwise.

The round trip covers about 11,000 miles and will be covered by almost continuous daily flying.

SAM HARDY RETURNS TO AMERICA

Sam Hardy who played opposite Cicely Courtneidge "Aunt Sylla"
at Tillingham, the most spectacular musical production yet screened in British Studios, has sailed for America.

He is famous for his personal stunts. Among other things he has his own book matches, complete with name and photograph.
As a parting gesture Cicely Court-neidge who left for the U.S.A. presented Mr. Hardy with a packet of book matches printed with her name and that of Sam Hardy crossed through.

But Sam Hardy had his revenge.
He went down to see Cicely off
and at Victoria distributed leaflets at the platform to the effect that Sam Hardy (in gigantic capitals)
wishes "Bon Voyage to Cicely Courtneidge (in infinitesimal type).

WINDJAMMER'S GREAT TRIP

Hamburg to Adelaide in Sixty-six Days

Adelaide, Jan. 7.
A voyage recalling the halcyon days of the famous clipper ships, Cutty Sark and Thermopylae, has just been completed by a German windjammer, the Padua.

Sailing out of Hamburg, the Padua has created a new record by entering Wallaroo port in 66 days. The vessel experienced strong winds practically all the way and made steady progress. The officers and crew are very pleased with the remarkable voyage they have made.

The Padua breaks a record which has been held for the last fifteen years by the French vessel Crillon. The Padua will load grain for the return journey to Europe.—Reuter.

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONES IN CHINKIANG

Great Improvement in Service

Chinkiang, January 4.
Great improvement in long-distance telephone service has been made in Kiangsu during the past year, it is learnt.

According to information from the Provincial Government, a total of over 800 miles of long-distance telephone lines are now in operation in the districts of Chinkiang, Kiangning, Tschu, Ku-yung, Tanyang, Kintan, Liyang, Ning, Wuchin, Wushu, Soochow, Changshu and Kiangyin. In Southern Kiangsu in view of the lack of such facilities in northern Kiangsu, special efforts are being made by the Provincial Government for the installation of long-distance telephone lines in the northern districts of Nantung, Jukao, Tungshai, Yencheng, Fowling, Tungshai, Kanyu and Tschung-kang, so as to facilitate communication. It is learnt that 400 miles of wire and an outlay of $200,000 will be needed for installation of the new lines.

It is further learnt that most of the districts in the province now have local telephone installations. Plans for the operation of such service in other districts will also be carried out as soon as financial conditions permit.—Kuo Min.

ITALIAN LOAN Successful Floating

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright)]

Turin, Jan. 12.
According to latest news, the first results of Italy's internal loan calling for four milliard Lira, redeemable in nine years exceed all expectations. More than two milliard have been already subscribed. Genoa ranks first with 800,000,000 and Turin second with 500,000,000.—Transocean Kuo Min.

COTTON OUTLOOK IN LANCASHIRE

Reported the Best for Several Years

Manchester, Jan. 8.
Lancashire considers the cotton outlook for the coming year the best for several years.
The considerable efforts made during the past year have now brought the industry up to date. More machinery is running to-day than a few months ago, but the most significant fact is that the larger portion of it is working on a more remunerative basis.
It is realised that some of Lancashire's former foreign markets have probably been lost for ever, while the coarser cloths continue to be made in East, but it is believed that concentration upon the finer cloths can yield very promising results.—Reuter.

SOVIET CEASES DUMPING IN JAPAN

Tokyo, Jan. 7.
The Soviet Government has decided to suspend its oil dumping policy because of the absolute need in Russia of great quantities of fuel in connection with the second Five-Year plan, it was reported here to-day.
As a result of this change of policy, the government at Moscow has decided to incorporate its oil divisions to foreign countries into the diplomatic service, it was said.—United Press.

FOUR VESSELS ORDERED FOR CHINA

Statement Made in Newcastle

(Special Air-Mail Service)

London, Dec. 27.

It was stated in Newcastle recently that the Chinese National Government had placed orders for two vessels with Messrs. Swan, Hunter and Wigham Richardson, Limited, Wallsend, and for two others with that firm's associated company, Messrs. Barclay, Curle and Co., of Glasgow. The vessels will be between 6,000 and 8,000 tons each.

MORE SHIPS PUT ON JAPAN-INDIA LINE

Economic Difficulties Not Yet Solved

Tokyo, Jan. 8.

Economic difficulties between Japan and India have not yet been completely solved, it was indicated today when the Japanese Trade League of Osaka presented the Ministers of Foreign and Commerce and Industry with a resolution seeking a Government protest against the new Indian customs tariff on Japanese dry goods.

The League, at its meeting in Osaka yesterday, sent its executive committee to Tokyo to urge action against the Indian tariff which would be a hard blow to dry goods manufacturers and merchants in Japan.

At the same time, Japanese manufacturers of cotton fabrics received a flood of orders from Indian buyers for shipment as soon as the new Indo-Japanese Commercial Treaty is signed. This is expected within the next two weeks.

The N.Y.K. and O.S.K. lines, the two largest shipping firms of Japan, will each place one more ship on the India-Japan run in order to meet the demand for fast delivery on orders. The British-owned P. & O. line has also added two ships to the Indo-Japanese service, it was learned.

AFRICAN AIR SURVEY

For Coastal Flying
Boat Service

A coastal flying boat service between Mombasa and Durban is contemplated by Imperial Airways. A party led by Major H.G. Brackley, Air Superintendent of the company, has recently surveyed the route in a Short "Calcutta" biplane boat, and there is every likelihood that regular operations will begin soon.

Major Brackley, who was accompanied by Mr. C.G. Lumsden, pilot, and by Mr. J.W.S. Brackley, who was recently appointed to the management of the company's Central African Area, has prepared a report on every mile of the way, indicating the best and safest anchorages for craft of the size of the three-engined "Calcuttas", and the amount of traffic which might possibly be diverted from the present slow coastal steamers to an airway.

Though the coastal service would be run as a separate undertaking, an air link would be provided to the main trunk line to Kisumu, whence to the coast the flying boats would follow the line of the great lakes.

First multi-engined flying boat to be employed by Imperial Airways on the Empire routes, the Short "Calcutta" was displaced two years ago in the Mediterranean by the larger four-engined Short "Scipio" planes. Subsequently they were employed up to the spring of this year on sections of the Africa airway as far south as the great lakes. Others have acted as reserve equipment to the Mediterranean services.

Each "Calcutta" has space for up to fourteen passengers and a considerable load of mails and freight. A service of the kind proposed would employ them profitably for some years yet, and at the same time provide enormous saving of time for all urgent communications along some 2,300 miles of coast.
